KEVIN MAGUIRE, CCTE, GLP

Kevin Maguire serves as the Director of Travel for Intercollegiate Athletics for The University of Texas at Austin. He also serves as President of The Expedition Development Company, Inc.

The EDC, Inc. is involved in consulting services for foreign companies doing business in Latin America, hotel renovation in Central America and Europe, the development of planned communities in Central and South America, and housing construction.

Maguire served as the President & CEO, and Chairman of the Board of the Global Business Travel Association (GBTA). He currently is the GBTA Vice President and Chairman for GBTA Europe.

A 40-year veteran of the travel industry, Kevin began his career as a sales representative for Pan American World Airways. He has worked in many phases of the industry: from owning a successful travel agency; to creating a system of nation-wide travel educational programs; from owning a company that designs unique customized tour programs; to managing operations for two of the nation's largest corporate travel management firms.

As a leading travel management consultant, Kevin's clients include many large and small companies, international corporations, domestic and foreign government organizations. He is a frequent speaker and panelist at travel industry events.

He is a participant in the Corporate Advisory Councils for American Airlines, United Airlines and Delta Airlines. He is a founding member of the Corporate Travel Consortium. Business Travel News recognized Maguire by honoring him with the travel industry's "Best Practitioner Award" twice and in 2005 by naming him to the Top 25 Most Influential Executives in corporate travel for his outstanding contributions to the industry.
